- iii. generate a ticket from a BCLC self-serve terminal; and
- iv. pay the authorized retailer or BCLC, where applicable, the $1, $2, $5 or $10 wager for each completed Keno selection per draw.

8. LIMITATIONS

- a) Keno has the following limitations restricting prize liability and payout:
 - i. The maximum prize that may be won on any one Keno draw, not including Keno Bonus or Keno Doubler, is $200,000 regardless of the amount wagered, and such amount may be reduced by subparagraph (ii) hereof:
 - ii. The maximum prize that may be won on any Keno draw for which a player elects to play Keno Bonus is 10X the value of the Keno prize, up to a maximum $2,000,000 or $4,000,000 if Keno Doubler applies.

For all draws except for draws which include tickets with Keno Doubler, the aggregate amount that may be won in any given draw by all ticket holders whose unadjusted prizes for such draw exceeds $1,000 shall be limited to $2,000,000 less the aggregate of all prizes in such draw of $1,000 or less.

For draws which include tickets with Keno Doubler, the aggregate amount that may be won in any given draw by all ticket holders whose unadjusted prizes exceeds $1,000 shall be limited to $4,000,000 less the aggregate of all prizes in such draw of $1,000 or less.

If, in any draw, the aggregate amount that could be won, but for this provision, would exceed $2,000,000 or if, in any draw including Keno Doubler designated tickets, the aggregate amount that could be won, but for this provision, would exceed $4,000,000, then the aggregate amount payable on all Winning Tickets for that draw entitling their holders to prizes in excess of $1,000 shall automatically be reduced, and the amount payable in respect of each such Winning Ticket shall be equal to the amount that would have been payable before any reduction less the amount payable to the holders of the Winning Tickets for that draw entitling their holders to $1,000 or less multiplied by a fraction, having as its numerator $2,000,000 or $4,000,000 if applicable to a draw which include the Keno Doubler designation tickets, less the aggregate amount payable to all ticket holders for such draw entitling to $1,000 or less and, as its denominator, the aggregate amount that would have been payable on all Winning Tickets for that draw before any reduction less the aggregate amount payable to all holders of Winning Tickets for such draw entitling their holders to $1,000 or less.

- b) In addition to the Keno restrictions stated above, Keno Pattern Play includes limitations restricting prize liability and payout whereby a maximum of 160 plays per pattern, regardless of how selected, will be available for each Keno draw.

9. CANCELLATION OF TICKET

A player may only cancel a ticket at the authorized retailer where such ticket was issued provided that such ticket is cancelled prior to the first draw listed on the ticket following the issuance of the ticket.

A ticket issued by a BCLC authorized retailer for consecutive Keno draws and where the first draw has already begun may be cancelled prior to the time sales for the second consecutive draw on such ticket ends. A re-issued ticket will be generated for the first draw. If sales for the second consecutive draw have ended or the second consecutive draw has begun or occurred, the ticket cannot be cancelled.

For draws during Keno Doubler promotion periods, the following restrictions apply. While retailers may cancel tickets printed in error, where a player is unable to make payment, or where BCLC otherwise authorizes; players cannot cancel validly issued tickets.
