HAS A PRIZE BEEN CLAIMED YET?

- Winners have 52 weeks from the draw date printed on their ticket to claim their prize.
- Every winner is different when it comes to the time they take to claim a prize – some may claim a prize within days, whereas others will hold onto a winning ticket for weeks or even months.
- Winners often talk to a financial advisor or take time to gain perspective while their win sinks in before coming forward to claim their prize.

JACKPOT FACTS:

- The largest prize ever won in B.C. was a $80 million Lotto Max jackpot prize from the May 9, 2025, draw. The ticket was purchased in Surrey.

LARGEST ONLINE WIN:

- The record for the largest online lottery prize in B.C. is $58 million, won in March 2024 by a Richmond resident who purchased the winning Lotto 6/49 ticket on PlayNow.com.

LOTTO 6/49 FACTS:

- Lotto 6/49 ticket sales launched on June 3, 1982.
- The most recent game change launched on September 14, 2022, introducing two jackpots on every draw: the Classic Jackpot of $5 million and Gold Ball jackpot that starts at $10 million and can grow to more than $60 million.
- Two Gold Ball Draw winners are made per week – that's at least two new millionaires every week across Canada.
- The largest Lotto 6/49 prize claimed in B.C. was $58 million from a draw in March 2024.
- Odds of winning a Lotto 6/49 Classic jackpot: 1:13,983,816 per $3 play.
