

Quick Facts

August 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lotto Max Facts:

- Lotto Max is Canada's biggest lottery game and launched in September 2009.
- The largest prizes previously won in B.C. were three $50 million Lotto Max jackpots from tickets sold in Vancouver in October 2010, in Langley in March 2014 and in Kelowna in April 2016.
- The largest Lotto Max prize ever won in Canada was $65 million in Montreal in June 2019.
- In May, Canadians who play Lotto Max saw significant changes with the introduction of a brand-new Tuesday draw, allowing jackpots to grow more quickly.
- The main Lotto Max jackpot can now grow as high as $70 million.
- Maxmillions prizes are added when the main jackpot reaches $50 million, and an additional set of seven numbers are drawn for every Maxmillion prize available.
- The odds of winning the jackpot, which begins at $10 million, or a Maxmillions prize of $1 million, are 1 in 33,294,800 per $5 play.
- The overall odds of winning any prize are 1 in 7 per $5 play.

British Columbians have claimed over $113 million in Lotto Max prizes so far in 2019, including a $25.9 million jackpot won in Merritt in February. Anyone can win and #youcouldbenext.
