BCLC'S SOCIAL PURPOSE

BCLC exists to generate win-wins for the greater good. We generate win-wins by asking our employees, partners, and government stakeholders to continually evaluate the impacts of all activities and decisions on individuals, institutions, communities and the planet. Motivated by our social purpose, every step we take is guided by our purpose and vision to 'revolutionize gambling entertainment through engaging experiences that build and benefit communities.'

BCLC'S COMMITMENT TO RECONCILIATION

Our operations span the entirety of the province that we now call British Columbia. We respectfully acknowledge that we are guests in the territories of more than 200 First Nations, each with unique traditions, cultures, and histories. We are grateful to these First Nations caretakers for their stewardship of these lands and waters since time immemorial.

BCLC is committed to establishing and maintaining good relations with all First Nations, Métis, and Inuit people in British Columbia and beyond. Our journey has only recently begun, and we have a lot of work to do in collaboration with Indigenous Peoples to understand the Truth, reconcile the past, and truly generate win-wins for the greater good, together.

COURTENAY BENEFITS

In 2023, the City of Courtenay allocated its share of provincial gambling revenue from hosting Chances Courtenay to a range of community causes and cultural initiatives, such as the Courtenay & District Historical Society, the Sid Williams Theatre Society and the Comox Valley Art Gallery.

Gambling revenue also helped to bolster public safety and security through the funding of two ongoing RCMP positions in the community and supported important infrastructure projects. In the spirit of reconciliation, the City also used this funding to support the K'ómoks First Nation Guardian Watchmen Program and National Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration.

LOCAL IMPACT

Chances Courtenay is proud to be a part of bringing the 1948 DeHavilland Vampire Mark III, 17031 aircraft back into the public eye for all to see. To mark the 100 year anniversary of the Royal Canadian Air Force in 2024, 19 Wing and the Comox Valley Air Force Museum Association are fundraising to construct a pavilion to house this iconic piece of history.
